"Horrible Accident. On Friday Afternoon about 2 o'clock, a Mr. Dorsey of the Suffolk lead-works South Boston, was accidentally killed.

It appears that he was busy in oiling the machineries and, reaching his hand through the large wheel, that the engineer let up the steam. ~~Consequently~~ Not knowing he was there and, horrible to relate Mr. Dorsey was killed and 1 of his arms was broke near the wrist and the other broke near the shoulder and his ribs broke, and his head horribly crushed. he has left a wife and 6 small children, who were dependent on his labor for their living. To mourn his loss. There is also another case where in the benevolent, may assist the unfortunate."

DISUNION PLEDGE.

WHEREAS, in the formation and adoption of the Constitution of the United States, the following criminal and dangerous concessions were made to the slaveholding power, namely: that the foreign slave trade should be safely prosecuted under the national flag, as a lawful branch of American commerce, for a period of not less than twenty years; that fugitive slaves should find no protection from their pursuers on any portion of the American soil; that slave insurrections should be suppressed by the combined military and naval power of the country, if needed in any emergency; and that a slaveholding oligarchy, created by allowing three-fifths of the whole slave population to be represented as property by their masters, should be allowed a place in Congress;—

Therefore, regarding that Constitution as a “covenant with death, and an agreement with hell,” the mighty prop that sustains the entire slave system, we, the undersigned, to signify our abhorrence of injustice and oppression, and to clear our skirts from innocent blood, do hereby pledge ourselves not to elect, or in any way aid or countenance the election of a candidate for any office, the entrance upon which requires an oath or affirmation to support the Constitution of the United States; but in all suitable ways to strive for the peaceable dissolution of the Union, as the most consistent, feasible, and efficient means of abolishing Slavery.
